GOOD GROUNDS FOR HOPE THAT PEACE WILL RESULT

Reply of Russia to Roosevelt Proposition in the Hands of M. Witte.

Plan Involves the Ransom of Sakhalin, Payment for Keep of Russian Prisoners and Chinese Eastern Railway in Lieu of Indemnity.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 22.—A long cablegram from St. Petersburg, which is believed to be the Russian reply, arrived about 10 o'clock tonight, and M. Witte's secretaries, Mr. Nabuckoff and Mr. Plancon, immediately began deciphering it.

Considerable excitement was apparent in the annex, where the Russian headquarters are located. Sheet by sheet the translation was taken to M. Witte's room. The rumor is that it is a refusal, a non-possum, as a reiteration of the Russian position that she has given ample proof of her desire for peace in the articles already accepted and that more she could not yield with dignity and honor.

No confirmation of the reply that Russia's reply is a negative can be obtained, and it must be accepted with all reserve. The lights in the rrom of M. Witte and Baron de Rosen were burning long after midnight.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 23, 2 a.m.—It is stated that Baron Komura has agreed to offer at the session at 9:30 this morning the president's compromise proposition. A high authority believes it impossible that a final rupture can come today, no matter what the character of the emperor's final instructions to M. Witte may be.

"If the negotiations can be prolonged into next week," he said, "so much pressure will be brought to bear upon the emperor that he will not ORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 22.-The success of the president's heroic Associated Press is now in a position to reveal substantially the suggestion of President Roosevelt for breaking the existing deadlock in the peace negotiations and rescuing the conference from failure. His solution would ingeniously permit the satisfaction of the Japanese demands for reimburesement for the cost of the war and at the same time enable Russia to face the world with the declarations that she had not ceded a foot of territory or paid a kopeck of war tribute to the victor.

I caical C.

Logical Compromise.

The solution is the one which has heretofore been described in the Associated Press dispatches as the natural and logical compromise. Tersely stated, it consists in an agreement by Russia to repurchase possession of either all or half of the island of Sakhalin, now in the military occupation of Japan, for a sum, the amount of which, if the two countries cannot agree shall be decided by some method of arbitration hereafter to be determined. The purchase money, together with the sum Japan would obtain from the cession of the Chinese Eastern rallroad and the maintenance of the Russian prisoners in Japan, would, it is estimated, about equal the amount claimed by Japan as her bill for the tegst of the war. Possibly, therefore, the solution offered by the president involves recession by Japan upon article the restrict of the testion of Schehalt. The solution is the one which has tolves recession by Japan upon article (the cession of Sakhalin), and recession by Presion by Japan upon article (the cession by Japan upon the cession of Sakhalin), and recession by Russia upon article 9 (indemnity). It seems practically certain, though this cannot be affirmed positively, that the president today was able to give M. Witte substantial assurance that Japan would be willing to accept such a compromise.

Depends Upon Russia.

This is apparently supported by the horitative Japanese sta to the Associated Press tonight in re-ply to a question as to whether Japan had not decided to make substantial "It all depends upon

It was the president's message to M. Witte which caused the sensation of the day. Early in the morning had come the official announcement that the meeting of the conference which was to have been held today had been postponed until tomorrow at 9:30 o'clock. The public reason assigned was that the protocols for submission at the sitting had not been completed. But a few hours later the true reason leaked out. J. L. McGrew, one of the stenographers attached to the executive office at Oyster Bay, had arrived with a communication from the president for the Russian plenipotentiaries. M. Witte and Baron de Rosen had left the hoiel ostensibly for a ride in an auto car to York Beach, but instead had quietly slipped over to the conference building at the navy yard to receive the message from Assistant Secretary Peirce. The most elaborate precautions had been taken to insure secrecy, but it leaked out through a "tip" from New York which reached the Associated Press.

All Declined to Talk. was the president's message to M.

All Declined to Talk.

From 10:30 until 1:10 M. Witte and Baron de Rosen remained at the conference building with Mr. Peirce. All those present declined to make any statement regarding what transpired at the navy yard, even refusing to admit that any importance attached to at the navy yard, even refusing to admit that any importance attached to the matter. M. Witte would only admit that he had gone to the building "to send a message," and Baron de Rosen and Mr. Peirce absolutely refused to make any statement. Mr. McGrew took the 2:35 train to Boston, whence; according to reports be took McGrew took the 2:35 train to Boston, whence: according to reports he took the merchants' limited, after first inquiring at the intelligence office for the connections to Oyster Bay. He carried a dress suit case, which probably contained the reply to the president. This reply, it is believed, was prepared by M. Witte and Baron de Rosen after Mr. Peirce had delivered to them the president's message. A suggestion is made that during the stay at the navy yard the Russian plenipotentiaries were in direct communication with the president by telegraph, but there is nothing to substantiate this, and under the circumstances it appears unlikely.

Work of Kaneko.

Work of Kaneko.

Mr. Roosevelt's message to M. Witte and Baron de Rosen is believed to have been the result of his interview yester-day at Oyster Bay with Baron Kaneko, one of Marquis Ito's close friends, who has acted as the president's medium of ommunication with the Tokio govern-

A story was in circulation at the hotel this afternoon to the effect that Baron Kaneko's secretary, Mr. Saki, was here in communication with the Japanese plenirotentiaries and also with Mr. Peirce, but investigation developed the fact that, all ough Mr. Saki had been here a week ago, he was not here to fact that, all ough Mr. Saki had been here a week ago, he was not here to-day. The general disposition was to regard today's swift and kaleidoscopic developments as materially brightening the chances of the

Another slight flurry was created today by the arrival of Colonel Michael, the chief clerk of the state department. He had come in response to summons from Mr. Peirce, but both Mr. Peirce and Colonel Michaels stated that the visit was cally the control of the colonel of the colonel with the colonel of the visit was only in connection with the routine business of the department.

Mr Peirce, the third assistant secretary of state, tonight issued the following statement: "No envoy or representative of the president had any conference with M. Witte or Baron de Rosen today, nor did I have any conference with either of them, nor was I closeted with them. They had business at the navy yard and my duties required me to be present at the yard to make suitable arrangements for their comfort. rangements for their comfort. But in no way, shape or manner did I have a conference with them on behalf of the president in-relation to their relations to Janan

"M. Witte and Baron Rosen had intended to remain longer in the navy yard, in consequence of which I had luncheon prepared for them, but owing to a derangement of the stomach, from which he has been suffering for several days. M. Witte being under the care of a physician at the Wentworth deemed it inadvisable to remain for luncheon at the yard and therefore took his departure at an earlier hour took his departure at an earlier hour than usual, leaving some of his secretaries who continued their work in the conference building until 7:30 o'clock."

EXPECT A DEADLOCK.

People of Russia Reconciled to Continuation of War.

St. Petersburg. Aug. 23, 2:30 a. m.— The effect of President Roosevelt's per-sonal influence toward reconciling the differences between the Russian and differences between the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries is being watched with the closest attention here. Though all save the highest representatives of the foreign office are in ignorance of the exact status of the negotiations, it is felt generally that the negotiations are on the verge of a deadlock. The public at large has practically reconciled itself to the apparent necessity of continuing the war, and there is only one opinion about the desirability of peace if obtainable without humiliation. The action, therefore, of the president, is far from unwelcome. A growing conviction is noticeable

London, Aug. 23.—The Morning Post, which throughout the war has strongly identified itself with the Japanese side, in a dispatch from its correspondent at Portsmouth, published this morning, declares that the "peace of Portsmouth is within measurable distance." The correspondent asserts that both sides will make substantial concessions for the sake of peace. Russia, he says, will pay Japan a sum in the guise of expenses for the maintenance of prisoners, etc., and that Sakhalin will be divided. Russia retaining the northern and Japan the south Sakhalm will be divided, Russia retaining the northern and Japan the southern part, while Japan will abandon her claim as to the interned warships and the limitation of Russia's naval force

Code is Needed.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Colonel W. A. Michael, chief clerk of the department of state, left here last night for Portsmouth, N. H., in response to a telegram, and took with him a copy of the state department code, presumably for the use of Secretary Peirce in communicating with the president. It is probable Colonel Michael will return to Washington tomorrow or the next day.

Real Hope For Peace.

Lendon. Aug. 23.—The Portsmouth correspondent of the Times states that there is real hope for peace and that the Japanese are ready to arrange a settlement in a way that will save Russian dignity and honor. Apparently, says the correspondent, the basis of this settlement is the retention by Russia of a portion of the island of Sakhalin in consideration of a payment of money in lieu of indemnity.

The policemen disappeared and Mr. Newman went to police headquarters. When he reached there he was released by Inspector Whitaker. Mr. Newman was indignant at his arrest. Loomis, of Venezuela Asphalt Fame, Mentioned in Connection with the Mexican Post, But Is Likely to Be Disappointed.

Conger, of Iowa, has resigned his post as ambassador to Mexico to take effect October 18 next, and President Roosevelt has accepted the resignation.

Mr. Conger's retirement from the diplomatic service was foreshadowed in these dispatches last week. It was indicated then that he might be sent to Peking as a special commissioner of the president to adjust, if possible, the differences which have arisen between this country and China over the boycott of American goods by some of the Chinese commercial giulds. While no official statement is obtainable here regarding the mission, there are reasons for the statement that it either has been abandoned by the president or that it has been declined by Mr. Conger.

At any rate, it is believed Mr. Conger will not go to China.

It has not been determined definitely that Mr. Conger as ambassador to Mexico, but, as heretofore stated, it probably will be David E. Thompson of Nebraska, now American ambassador Thompson desires the Mexico post.

In connection with the appointment the name of Francis B. Loomis, assistant secretary of state has been mentioned, but it can be said pretty definitely that Mr. Loomis will not go to China.
